

One-Day Family & Systems Constellation Workshop

With Francesca Mason Boring

All My Relations Constellations, Inc.

August 10, 2018 ✦ Ashton, Maryland

Celebrate a greater flow of love and connection supported by a Sacred Circle respecting the strength of your ancestor and honoring the destinies of those who came before and making a space for the resilience and potential in being able to engage a systemic perspective.

Francesca Mason Boring is Western Shoshone, a bi-cultural author, and international Facilitator of Family, Nature, & Human Systems Constellation. In addition to facilitating and teaching family systems constellation she has contributed to the development of constellation as ceremony, community constellations, and nature/environmental constellations.
