Francesca Mason Boring

Strength for the Journey: Family & Systems Constellation

Sofia, Bulgaria

Oct 20-21 Open Workshop  Oct 23-25 Facilitators & Experienced

Francesca Mason Boring, influenced by her bi-cultural background as both descendent of the Western Shoshone, (a Native American tribe in the US), and ancestors who immigrated to Canada and the United States, has provided numerous 21-day facilitator trainings in the United States and Canada. She has served on faculty for Constellation Intensives in the United States, Mexico, Germany and Australia and has provided workshops in the US, Canada, Mexico, Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Singapore, South Africa and Australia. An advisory Board Member and writer for The Knowing Field (the International professional journal on systems constellation published in England) Francesca has authored numerous books and articles on Family, Human, Community, Organizational and Natural Systems Constellation.

Francesca has encouraged the development of Nature Constellations, Community Constellations, and application of Systems Constellation for artists and entrepreneurs, in addition to sharing her deep love for family systems constellation. Acknowledging the Universal Indigenous Field and Ceremony as resources in facilitating Systems Constellation, we will cultivate the flow of love in the family and explore applications of system constellation in larger fields, participants and facilitators find encouragement and strength for the journey in this work.
