

Remembering our Soul's Belonging

Family, Nature and Community Systems Constellation Constellation as Ceremony

Francesca Mason Boring, All My Relations Constellations

November 16-17, 2019

Portland, Oregon

Explore how ancestral events reverberate in our daily lives, impacting our health and relationships

Shift the troubling family patterns that affect your own life

Expand your awareness of what it means to be human, rooted in Spirit, in your ancestral legacy; in connection with those you love, the water and the land

Francesca Mason Boring, bi-cultural Shoshone author, international teacher and facilitator encourages respect and incorporation of ancient healing wisdom traditions with systems constellation. Instrumental in the development of constellation as ceremony, community constellations, nature and environmental constellations, Francesca has facilitated or taught constellation work in Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Canada, Australia, Singapore, Italy, South Africa, Bulgaria and the U.S.A.
