

2022 Family, Nature & Systems Constellation Workshop

Restoring Connection & Finding the Love

With: Francesca Mason Boring

All My Relations Constellations

Portland, Oregon

May 14-15, 2022

Family & Human Systems Constellation provides a light on the horizon. After our time of isolation and separation, this Circle provides an opportunity to experience the support of our ancestors and a field of compassion. Practical applications of the work may strengthen our relationships, increase the flow of love and relieve the systemic barriers that have burdened our families for generations. Our legacy of courage is restored. Loss, immigration, separations, and exclusion find respite through systems constellations which recognizes that love, well being and prosperity are also part of our human condition.

Spring is the time of renewal. The roots waken and new growth can emerge.
