FRANCESCA MASON BORING

All My Relations Constellations

Family & Systems Constellation and Constellation as Ceremony is a powerful and respectful method for working with personal, professional, organizational and community issues.

WHO IS THIS FOR? If you are interested in personal development and wholeness in your family or organization * If you are discovering within yourself healing capacities that stretch the definitions of your profession If you are aware of your own living indigenous roots and want to deepen your understanding of your own culture Or if you feel drawn, intuitively directed to be in the Circle * This training is for you.

WHY TAKE THIS TRAINING? The work of Bert Hellinger, Family & Human Systems Constellation addresses trans-generational stress and helps to heal the wounds of the past to open healthy doors to the future. This work interrupts painful patterns in families and communities. As you learn this method, you, your family, your organization, career and community will benefit.
